CHARIS

Nurturing Hope: Compassion, Community, & Gratitude

IN THANKSGIVING

12 DEC | Catholic Centre, L3
9AM - 1PM

Event Keynote

Human dignity is the God-given worth of every person, which remains intact in suffering, displacement, or disaster. Catholic teaching calls us to recognize the image of God in each person and to respect them regardless of social status, nationality, or religion.

In humanitarian missions and disaster relief, this means putting people's needs first, protecting their rights and dignity, and offering help with compassion rather than treating them as statistics or passive recipients. Christ identifies himself with people who are hungry, sick, displaced, or vulnerable, so serving them is a concrete expression of love of neighbour
